A BREATHTAKING CITY

2018

cultural events / museums / attractions / hotels / restaurants / shopping

Dear guests and visitors,
Welcome to Jerusalem

Jerusalem is a city that integrates tradition with development, holy with secular and ancient with modern in an extraordinary way. Jerusalem is Israel's spiritual, historical and cultural capital and it provides its visitors with endless options from the short citybreak to the classic tour. In this guide we have compiled for you exclusive discounts and benefits for the many opportunities and attractions in Jerusalem, which is burgeoning with an increasing number of art, music and cultural events, where each visitor - even on a short citybreak - can find something enjoyable and of interest to them. I invite you to try everything Jerusalem has to offer during your visit and you are very welcome to come back and enjoy more of this wonderful city.

Nir Barkat
Mayor of Jerusalem

Dear visitor,

As part of your Breathtaking Jerusalem package, we have prepared for you this booklet which includes a wide variety of discounts, benefits and complimentary extras. The discounts apply to various museums, restaurants, bars, cultural events, shows, tours and much more.

This booklet was especially prepared for the participant of the breath-taking Jerusalem package.

The booklet is valid until December 31, 2018.

Offered packages: Four consecutive nights minimum at participating hotels, excluding Jewish Holidays and Christmas.

These Packages are sold only by tour operators in Europe authorised by JDA.

For more information please contact the Jerusalem Hotel Association at: jha1@zahav.net.il or the Jerusalem Development Authority at: tourisminfo@jda.gov.il

How to use your Jerusalem booklet:

The discounts and benefits listed in this booklet will be offered once activated by the hotel. This will be issued once the marked area has been stamped on the last page. Make sure to present the booklet before paying your bill at venues participating in the program.

Your Jerusalem booklet is for your use only and SHOULD NOT be shared.

Please take note that the opening hours of venues may vary from what is written in this booklet. For restaurants, sites and museums, shows and tours, it is best to call and reserve in advance.

For more information on how to receive these benefits, please contact your travel agent.

*Errors and omissions may occur.

Dinner for Two

A free meal for two (per room) by the hotel. Hotels without a restaurant will provide a dinner for two in an outside restaurant.

The benefit is under the following conditions:

1. The benefit is valid for a minimum stay of four consecutive nights.
2. The hotel must be a member of the Jerusalem Hotel Association and participate in this program. The room reservation for the guests must be ordered by the travel agents who participate in this program. The list of hotels participating in this program appear in:
www.jerusalem-hotels.org.il and at the end of this booklet.
3. This benefit is not valid on Jewish Holidays and Christmas.
4. For any questions, please contact (+972) 2-6521106 / 02-6521106

Museum of Islamic Art

The Museum for Islamic Art in Jerusalem provides visitors with a glimpse of one of the most rare and unique collections worldwide that relate the story of Islam from its beginnings in the 7th century to the 19th century.

Alongside the Islamic display is the famous Sir David Salomons Collection of antique European watches and clocks, one of the world's most important. The highlight of the display are the revolutionary watches and clocks made by the horological genius, Abraham Louis Breguet (1747-1823). Breguet's technological innovations can be seen in his masterpiece, watch no. 160, the famous "Marie Antoinette".
